

MEDIA ADVISORY

Feeding America Southwest Virginia's Harvest Home Community Kitchen prepares Thanksgiving Lunches

WHEN: Thursday, November 24, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

WHAT: The Harvest Home Community Kitchen at Feeding America Southwest Virginia in Abingdon will be preparing Thanksgiving lunches for those in need to carry out on Thursday, November 24 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The Thanksgiving lunch will consist of turkey, all the trimmings and dessert. This annual tradition brings together numerous volunteers who cook, package and distribute the meals.

The Harvest Home Community Kitchen will also be serving 35 King University international students who will be remaining on campus during the university's holiday break.

The Kitchen anticipates serving more than 250 meals this Thanksgiving.

Photo and video opportunities will be available and David Millsap, Feeding America Southwest Virginia Abingdon Branch Director, will be available for interviews.

WHERE: Harvest Home Community Kitchen, Feeding America Southwest Virginia – 21452 Gravel Lake Rd., Abingdon, Va.

CONTACT:

Amanda Allen

Marketing and Communications Coordinator

Feeding America Southwest Virginia

(540) 444-2942 (direct)

(540) 537-8984 (cell)

aallen@faswva.org

Salem, VA

###

About Feeding America Southwest Virginia

Feeding America Southwest Virginia was founded in 1981 and proudly commemorates 35 years of fighting hunger and changing lives through community partnerships. The Food Bank is an affiliate member of Feeding America. For the last three and a half decades, the Food Bank's ultimate mission has remained the same: eliminate hunger in the region. The primary function of the Food Bank is to secure and distribute large quantities of food for the hungry. Approximately $34 million worth of food and grocery related products are channeled annually through a network of more than 370 partner feeding programs in our 26-county, 9-city region that provide food or meals to those in need. Visit www.faswva.org for more information or like us on Facebook.